END OF THE VOLUME.

With this week's issue, we close the third volumn of the "TRUE NORTHERN-ER." For three years, this journal has done battle service in the great Republi--can host of northern freemen, and has endeavored to contribute its share to the sunparalled glory and success which has crowned the efforts of that party. The Free Press of last week comes down again upon the Republicans of this county, and especially upon the county officers, with about the usual amount of its wholesale charges, and cowardly insinnations, together, with some of the choice specimens of Billingsgate (directed principally against the editors of the North. erner,) with which the Free Press usually seeks to make up for its want of facts and arguments. The writer reiterates the charge against the Republicans of having nominated a man for the office of Pros. Attorney knowing him to be incompetent to hold the office-which is about the only definite charge which he prefers; the balance being made up mostly of wholesale accusations of mal-administration, and insinuations of criminality, which he knows to be false, and therefore dare not charge directly upon any individual-and he seems to think on this one charge he ultingly exclaims that we cannot escape the charge. We stated in our last, what we supposed to be the facts in relation to this matter; but, as the Free Press persists in his view of the case, we are now disposed to give him the full benefit of it. And, in the language of Holy Writ, Out of his own grouth will we condemn him. > The insinuation of the Free Press, that the reply of the Northerner to his attacks was influenced, or colored by the fact that we were on the eve of an election, simply shows the drift of his own mind, and why it is that he uniformly takes occasion to make some of his unfounded attacks, upon the eve of every election that occurs.
